

ACT
Government

Reconciliation Planting Day

Friday 30 May 9.00am – 4.30pm

including free BBQ

National Reconciliation Week is celebrated across Australia between 27 May and 3 June 2014. The theme this year is Let's walk the talk. The ACT Government invites you to come along and celebrate National Reconciliation Week 2014 by planting local native plants and learn about the significance they have to local traditional custodians and the cultural landscape.

Where Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Cultural Centre, Yarramundi Reach

What to expect

- Planting native species
- Weaving demonstrations
- Understanding Canberra's cultural landscape
- Free BBQ lunch
- Understanding local bush tucker
- Learning about Ngunnawal history and culture

What to bring Hat, sunscreen, long sleeves, long pants, gardening gloves, sturdy boots, mattock (if you have one) and a water bottle.

Contact

ACT Office for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Affairs – Scott Collins

T (02) 6207 1110 • E scott.collins@act.gov.au

RSVPs
are essential due to limited space in activities

No experience is required and tools are provided on site

Greening Australia

For more information on National Reconciliation Week visit:
<http://www.reconciliation.org.au/nrw/>